Dear Parent, Carer or Guardian,

The National Centre for Children's Literature and Storytelling exists to encourage young people to explore their own creativity whilst celebrating the rich tradition of storytelling in the Dumfries area and beyond. The JMB Creatives is an exciting new way for young people to:

- Discover more about our project to reopen Moat Brae as a National Centre for Children's Literature and Storytelling
- To get involved with specially selected projects
- To learn and develop new skills
- Build their CV
- Meet people and gain confidence
- To be creative and above all have fun!

You can find out more by talking to our Creative Learning and Engagement Officers John Molloy or Wendy Jones, reading the fact sheet, or going to the JMB Creatives Page on our web site.

The JMB Creatives is the Youth Forum for The Peter Pan Moat Brae Trust and is open to all people aged 10 – 21 years, most meetings will be held in local venues with full access.

If your child is under 18 we need to be able to prove that you give consent for them to attend and we need your contact details, particularly your phone number, so we can contact you quickly should the need arise. So please fill in the details requested on the next page and sign and date the form. Then please come along with it to the first session your child can attend.

Kind regards

John Molloy
